

CLOVERDALE'S FALL FESTIVAL HUGE SUCCESS

THOUSANDS VIEWED 4-H CLUB
EXHIBITS AND ENJOYED
THREE-DAY AFFAIR

Cloverdale's first fall festival sponsored by Cloverdale's Lion Club of Cloverdale twp. 4-H Club closed Saturday night at 11:30. It was a success in every particular. The program for the three days and nights were full of interest. The live stock exhibit was exceptional for a township affair. The exhibits of poultry and the Home Economics displays were also interesting.

The night programs were probably the most interesting and enjoyable ever put on in Cloverdale.

The Terre Haute Elks Chanters, composed of fifty voices, was splendid. The WIBC jamboree Friday night was very much appreciated and on Saturday night, Gloria Backer, and troupe from Indianapolis furnished the entertainment which was composed of songs and dances and other interesting numbers. The program was heard by the largest crowd of the week and estimated at 3000. Large crowds were present each night.

Cloverdale never before had three such interesting and high class entertainments all in one week and it was all free, being furnished by the Cloverdale's Lions Club. The Cloverdale Lions Club was organized a little over a year ago and is one of the live organizations of this sector of Indiana and the success of this first fall festival shows the club is doing things and going places.

The exhibit of farm machinery was also an interesting part of the affair.

The closing number of Saturday night's program was the crowning of the Queen of the Fall Festival. Miss Edythe Finney was the queen attended by Miss Janet Murphy and Miss Betty Ann Trippett.

Iowa Is Host To Gov. Dewey

ABOARD DEWEY CAMPAIGN TRAIN, Sept. 11.—(UP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today carried his campaign into traditionally Republican Iowa, the first state on his 6,700-mile coast-to-coast swing which generally is conceded to the Republican presidential candidate in the November election.

Swinging back into active campaigning after a week-end visit with his mother at his Owosso, Mich., birthplace, Dewey scheduled day-long conferences with party chiefs and leaders of half a dozen voting blocs in Des Moines.

It was his bid for the 10 electoral votes of a state which has been carried by a Democratic presidential candidate only three times since 1872—in 1912 by Woodrow Wilson and in 1932 and 1936 by President Roosevelt.

Iowa began swinging back to the Republican party with the election of George A. Wilson as governor in 1938, gave GOP presidential nominee Wendell L. Willkie a margin of 53,000 in 1940 and continued the trend in the state election.

Dewey leaves tonight for a two-day visit at the Valentine, Neb., ranch of former Gov. Samuel R. McKelvie where he will meet Nebraska and South Dakota political leaders for private conferences. His next major address is scheduled Sept. 18 at Seattle.

Meanwhile, at any impromptu rear-platform appearances and in interim press conferences he is expected to repeat the challenge of last week's Philadelphia and Louisville speeches—that the Roosevelt administration cannot direct peacetime reconversion because it has a defeatist attitude about the economic future of the nation.

Mattoon "Madman" Causes Hysteria

MATTOON, Ill., Sept. 11.—(UP)—A wave of alarm bordering on mass hysteria gripped this city of 15,000 persons today, following a night in which three more attacks by the "Madman of Mattoon" were reported and men armed with shotguns, revolvers and clubs patrolled the streets in search of the phantom anarchist who sprays his victims with "gardenia" gas.

Other developments in the mystery included the discovery of white stains on the foliage of shrubbery around the home of another victim. The stained foliage was sent to the state crime laboratory for an analysis.

Latest victims were two young mothers and a schoolteacher, Mrs. Kenneth Fitzpatrick, 20; Mrs. Richard Daniels, 24, wife of a soldier, and Miss Frances Smith, principal of the Columbian high school, who reported that the prowler visited her home for the fifth time last night.

Meanwhile, Police Commissioner Thomas V. Wright consulted with State's Attorney W. K. Kidwell who planned to make a check of state hospitals preliminary to investigating persons recently released from those institutions.

"A study of such persons' records and peculiarities may reveal an individual who would pull such a stunt," Kidwell said.

The prowler was seen again last night following his visit to the Fitzpatrick home. A neighbor woman told police she saw a thin man wearing a visored skull cap flee from the house after she heard Mrs. Fitzpatrick scream.

This is the second time the prowler has been seen and both descriptions of him were the same.

This tended to explode the theory of five Chicago chemical experts who stated last week that the anarchist was a phantom who existed only in the overworked imaginations of his supposed victims. They said a rumor, plus a whiff of clover, ragweed, smoke or sour milk, plus 98 per cent imagination, probably had created the non-existent prowler.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick was at home with her husband and two-year-old daughter when the attack occurred. She went into the kitchen and her husband heard her scream. She said she smelled the "sweet, sickish" odor of the gas, which also was detected by her husband. She was taken to her mother's home where a physician was called to treat her swollen lips and parched throat.

The attack on Mrs. Daniels occurred about 20 minutes earlier, police said. She heard a noise on the front porch and went out to investigate when she got a whiff of the gardenia-like odor of the gas which weakened her knees and made her faint, she said.

Another attack which occurred Saturday night also was reported to police last night. Mrs. Lucy Stephens, 26, said that she and her nephew, Jimmy Hardin, 9, had been attacked at the home of the boy's parents. They complained of the same stomach disorder and mouth and throat trouble as the other 32 victims. Both recuperated within 45 minutes of the attack.

Churchill Meets FDR at Quebec

QUEBEC, Sept. 11.—(UP)—President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Winston Churchill met again today in this old capital of French Canada, both pleased over the progress of the war and ready to start drafting new plans for the final and complete defeat of Germany and Japan.

"Victory is everywhere," Churchill said to the President as they met for their 10th wartime conference.

The two leaders arrived within an hour of each other on separate trains. Churchill came from Halifax where he arrived yesterday by ship and Mr. Roosevelt came from Washington.

They met at the Little Wolfe's Cove station on the banks of the St. Lawrence. Churchill and the President chatted for a moment about the war while posing for photographers.

"When everything you touch turns to gold," Churchill said of the recent continuing allied war successes, "there is no need crying out about providence."

HEAVY YANK GUNS SHELLING SIEFRIED LINE

AMERICANS IN LUXEMBOURG
LESS THAN 10 MILES FROM GERMANY

ROME, Sept. 11.—(UP)—French troops of the Seventh Army have reached the outskirts of Dijon, the largest city in central France, it was announced today.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF, Sept. 11.—(UP)—American 1st Army troops have liberated Luxembourg, capital of the Nazi-occupied grand duchy, a communique said today.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF, Sept. 11.—(UP)—American 1st Army troops liberated the capital city of Luxembourg and swept down on the German border less than 10 miles away today as giant field guns bombarded the Siegfried Line from a dozen frontier posts in a thunderous prelude to invasion.

Tightly-censored front dispatches indicated that the climactic assault on Hitler's west wall had been mounted along a front of more than 200 miles stretching down from the flooded points of northern Belgium, through the rugged Ardennes forest and down into the Lorraine basin before Metz and Nancy.

Armored columns of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' U. S. 1st Army liberated Luxembourg yesterday afternoon and fanned out beyond the tiny grand Duchy's capital against steadily increasing opposition.

One column drove 10 miles north of the city to Mersch where it locked in a swirling battle with German tanks and infantrymen, while other spearheads stabbed out to the east toward the Nazi frontier and southeast toward the Moselle river.

Veteran German troops, fighting now with their back to the west wall in the black certainty that a breakthrough at this point would spill invaders into their homeland, battled for every yard, but headquarters said Hodges' victory-flushed men were pushing ahead everywhere.

The 1st Army drive threatened momentarily to roll over the flank of the strong German forces defending the Moselle river crossings in the Metz-Nancy area, where Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's U. S. 3rd Army already had launched a "mystery offensive" aimed at the Rhineland.

Headquarters withheld all information on the progress of Patton's attack, but it was indicated that the fiery 3rd Army leader had brought up his armored and artillery reinforcements and had thrown his full striking power into the battle of the Moselle.

Dive-bombing allied planes raked the German battle lines with bombs and gun fire, and the great "long Toms" of the American armies hurled salvo after salvo across the frontier from forward positions just behind charging tanks and troops.

American and British gunners at the northern end of the assault line in Belgium also were pounding German soil from emplacements barely six miles from the Reich.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—(UP)—Seven German political leaders, including the ex-mayor of Leipzig and one of the Nazi party's most vicious killers, have been condemned to death for complicity in the July 20 attempt on Adolf Hitler's life, the German radio said today.

Carrying forward the merciless blood purge that had sent eight prominent army officers to death on the gallows among many others, the notorious Nazi people's court passed sentence on the seven after a mock trial that Berlin boasted had "eliminated" the last of the key figures in the abortive revolution.

Local Team Beats State Farm, 13-9

Greencastle's fast-stepping baseball team, composed mostly of teen age performers, added another victory to their undefeated record for the summer Sunday afternoon when they beat the Indiana State Farm, 13 to 9.

The battery of John Ross, pitcher, and Jimmy Zeis, behind the plate, proved a little too much for the players at the Putnamville institution. The game was played on the penal farm diamond and Ross kept the opposing batters well in hand the greater part of the contest.

Greencastle jumped into a 4-1 lead in the opening innings and increased this to 7 to 2. From there on the locals coasted into their 14 to 9 win.

This makes eight straight victories for the Greencastle boys. Among their victims are Spencer and Coal City. The local club will play a return game at the state farm on Sunday, Oct. 1. This coming Sunday, a tilt with the strong Brazil team is being arranged.

Score by innings:

Greencastle	25	0	2
State Farm	9	8	9

Batteries: Ross and Zeis; Chuck Green and Bell.

Two base hits: Taylor, Goodman, Grogg; Bell. Triples: Ross.

Lois Cowgill, first aid chairman for the county, is to be congratulated for the excellent job he did in setting up a Red Cross first aid station on the grounds of Cloverdale's 4-H fair the 7, 8, and 9 of September. The suggestion to establish a Red Cross tent for this occasion is credited to Mr. Quinette, enthusiastic first aider from that community and a member of Cloverdale Lions Club. ## OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary M. Hawkins, daughter of Robert and Angeline Moffett was born in Canalton County, Ohio, August 31, 1859 and died at her home south of Greencastle on the Cemetery road at 3:05 a. m., July 31, 1941.

When she was five years old her parents moved to Indiana in a covered wagon and located on a farm in Clay county near Clay City. Mrs. Hawkins and her two sisters and two brothers received their early education at a small country school about 2½ miles from her home. After this schooling was completed she went to Indianapolis and stayed with some friends of the family and attended a seminary for young women from which she graduated.

Her education completed she returned home to help care for her invalid mother and assist in all the other chores around the farm and home.

She organized a Sunday school at the Presbyterian church which she had joined and was a faithful worker in both the church and Sunday school until she was united in marriage to John Andrew Hawkins April 1, 1881. He was a graduate of Princeton University and Union Theological Seminary and held pastorates at Clay City in the Methodist church and Galton, Ill., and Casey, Ill., in the United Brethren church. After her marriage Mrs. Hawkins became a member of the United Brethren church at Center Point.

About 1904 Reverend Hawkins, his wife and son, removed to the home in which they both lived until their deaths.

Mrs. Hawkins' father, mother, brothers and sisters all preceded her in death, also two children, a son, John, and a daughter, Mary, died in infancy, and Rev. Hawkins who died on January 17, 1924.

She leaves to mourn her going one son, Tarquin Hawkins, daughter-in-law, Clova Hawkins, three grandchildren, Mrs. Mary Berry of Greencastle, R. 2, Mrs. Verna Ruth Forsyth, Lakewood, Ohio, and John Tarquin Hawkins, Greencastle, R. 2, one step-grandson, Daniel Livingston and four great-grandchildren, Jay L. Forsyth, Milton Wayne Berry, Carolyn Alice Berry, Virginia Ann Berry, two nieces, Mrs. Earl Van Horn, Houssville, Ind., Mrs. Ray Kellum, Clay City, Ind., and one nephew, Clint Moffett of Coal City.

The last few years of Mrs. Hawkins' life she was blind and therefore could not read but she was always interested in the news of the modern world and her mind was open to new ideas. She enjoyed the radio and was always glad for any bit of news friends would tell her. She bore her affliction of cataracts bravely.

"Grandma Hawkins" as she was known by many friends, loved little children very much and even at her near 90 years enjoyed their company and never seemed to tire of their constant play about her.

She loved her home and stayed in it practically all the time. She enjoyed company and was always ready to talk with whoever had time to stop and chat.

She was ready and willing to die and assured her friends that everything was all right between she and God.

Her dying words were that she was going home to her husband and father.

She was in the best of spirits to the last day she lived and her health was good considering her advanced years.

She awoke about twenty till three and was gone at five after three so her illness was short as she had always desired it to be.

The night before she passed away she was sitting on the porch talking of her belief in God and spiritual things and she quoted the following poem, thus showing what a strong mind she had to the very end.

So live that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan that moves
To the realms of shade,
Where each shall take his chamber
In the silent halls of death.

Thou go not like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him.
And lies down to pleasant dreams.

MARKS TODAY'S RUBBER CENTER OF THE WORLD

Built in less than two years by America's synthetic rubber experts largely with the aid of alcohol supplied by the beverage distillers

WHEN the Japanese captured the chief natural rubber producing centers of the world, they thought they had dealt a death blow to America's war effort.

But in two short years the United States became the new rubber producing center of the world.

This great war miracle was achieved by America's brilliant synthetic rubber experts largely with the aid of alcohol supplied by our country's beverage distillers.

The rubber experts had the technical production knowledge that made synthetic rubber possible. The beverage distillers furnished the huge volume of alcohol required by the alcohol-butadiene process... the most practical at that time.

Today we are producing enough synthetic rubber to meet our needs for essential civilian and war rubber goods. Proof!... the request of Bradley Dewey, Rubber Director, to terminate his wartime powers.

Current production is at rate of 200,000 tons more annually than the entire country consumed for all purposes in 1940.

Thank you for your patience!

To aid in the achievement of this wartime miracle, America's beverage distillers stopped making whiskey nearly two years ago and produced nothing but industrial alcohol. They are fully aware of the inconveniences you faced during the 22 months when not a drop of whiskey was made in this country. For your extreme patience and understanding during that time, they are sincerely grateful and appreciative.

Conference of Alcoholic Beverage Industries, Inc.

CRISIS IN 1942

"If we fail to secure quickly a large new rubber supply our war effort and our domestic economy both will collapse."

—Baruch Report, Sept. 11, 1942

ACHIEVEMENT IN 1944

"A synthetic rubber industry has been established and is in complete operation. It is providing the nation with an ample supply of rubber."

—Bradley Dewey, Rubber Director, July 25, 1944

TRIBUTE

Commenting on the beverage distilling industry's contribution, a high W.P.B. official said on April 13, 1944...

1. "...it is fair to regard the rubber manufactured to date, as being almost solely the product of the beverage distilling industry."

2. "...synthetic rubber is from 6 to 9 months ahead of where it could have been if alcohol had not been available for butadiene production."

3. "...an almost unparalleled example of the overnight conversion of an entire industry from peace to war."

—Dr. Walter G. Whittingman
